"Old Aunt Hannah."

Her head as white as snow, The last leaf of the good old tree-We cannot leave her so. In this old mansion she was born,

Her joys and griefs were here; How well she loved and nursed us all Through many a changing year! See how she's smiling at the fire And whispering something low! She's thinking of our Christmas time O, long and long ago!

Beside you crumbling garden wall Our gallant father lies, Our good old mother at his side-Aunt Hannah closed their eyes! She was the playmate of them both, Some fifty years ago-

Twould break her heart, I know. When the old soldier parcell'd out His treasures great and small,

Aunt Hannah be would give to none He gave her to us all. We laid his good sword on his breast For he had charged us so-Whilst old Aunt Hannah knelt in tears-Ah! Tom, we cannot go! Her failing sands will soon be out,

The kindly angel come. And lead the good old faithful soul To our Master's home. And when we've mark'd her simple grave, And dropp'd a tear or so, We'll urn the ashes of the past And westward gayly go!

Judge Bailey, formerly of Georgia, addressed a union meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, last January, on which occasion, according to a Knoxville paper-

At that session the chief topic of discussion in the convention was the and the general exposition of the supposed wrongs of the South. Mr. Yancey had a good opportunity of conferring with the ultraists of other southern States, on the subject of secession said: and disunion, which, we are led to believe, he industriously improved. For within about a month afterward he addressed a letter to Mr. Jas. S. demanding the freest conference and frankest Slaughter, dated June 15th, 1858, expression among those joined by a common which is as follows: which is as follows:

"MONTGOMERY, June 15, 1858. ization of her true men for prompt resistance approaching Presidential election struct the Southern mind—give courage to each other, and at the proper moment, by one organiz-concurred in the House, with very concerted action, we can precipitate the cotton. ed concerted action, we can precipitate the cotton slight if any alteration : States into a revolution.

So Virginia was to remain in Union, but as to North Carolina, what consultation upon the state of the country, was to become of her. Had the Leaguers made any provision for her? We suppose not.

Jeff. Davis is another supporter of the Secession ticket, and in the fall of 1858, on his return from a tour through the northern and eastern States, he delivered an address at Jackson, Mississippi, in which he broached the idea first declaration of this purpose by a leading man. He thus stated it :

Without pausing for your answer, I will state my test, Governor Wise had addressed letters to own position to be that such a result would be a species of revolution by which the purposes of the Government would be destroyed, and the observance of its mere forms entitled to no respect. Mr. Pugh, of Alabama, said: "If with the character of the Government vell defined, and the rights and privileges o the parties of the compact clearly asserted by the Democratic party, the Black Republicans get possession of the Government, then the question is fully presented, whether the southern States will remain in the Union, as subject and degraded colonies, or will they withdraw and establish a southern confederacy of oequal homogeous sovereigns?

If the delegation from Alabama, Mississippi Florida, Texas, Louisiana and Georgia reflect the opinion of the people—and it is but fair to think they do—then there is much hope for the South.'

Mr. R. Barnwell Rhett, at the same meeting said :

Now what have the people of North Carolina to say to such disunion sentiments as these? We hear none such from the supporters of Douglas, or Bell; nor do they even come from the supporters of Lincoln. It is only by the supporters of this ticket which was nominated by the rule or ruin faction which seceded from the great national democratic party that we hear breathed a syllable about disunion. We do not hesitate to say that, as between the squatter sovereignty of Douglas Moore; Alexander Kelly, whig. and the disunion of the Seceders we prefer, infinitely prefer, the former.

Ponder these things, people of N. Carolina, ponder these things democrats of North Carolina, and cooly and calmly determine whether you can assist in elevating a party that looks to the dissolution of this Union as its most cherished object. We contend that nothing has happened or is likely to happen that will render a dissolution of this Union necessary, and we shall continue to oppose all parties and all men who advocate or advance any such abominable doctrine.

A Trip to Lenoir and Happy Valley. On Tuesday the 14th, in company with the groom and his blushing bride, and others to whom an invitation was extended, our humble self one of the number, we laid aside the the most important epochs in the legisturmoils of the office to enjoy a jaunt to Le- lation of the country bear the impress noir and "Happy Valley." The morning of his great mind; and for devotion dawned in the beauty of loveliness as if to en hance the pleasures which were to strew the path of the happy couple during their journey, and, we hope, will continue until their snu of life shall go down to rise in a more blissful world. At the appointed time, our party took pasconches of the Western Railroad, to Hickory station, where, after passing away pleasantly an hour in social and merry conversation we set out by private conveyance to the romantic and beautiful town of Lenoir. Flying along the serpent-like winding of the road we could which we passed, as it was momentarily prewould fail to be impressed with the majesty State, especially in the Western portion .-Ever and anon appear the lofty peaks, covered with the verdure of summer, rearing them selves in sublimity as if to reach the blue arch, which hides the scenes of another world Our admiration was such as cannot be discribed by our feeble pen, as we neared our point of destination, On the way from the station, we were continually made to laugh at the quaint remarks of the sable driver who held the "ribbons," with the air of a Union course jockey. Jack of the part he was to perform for the merridid he succeed. Our wish is, old son of Afri-

About five o'clock, we reached the county seat of Caldwell, reposing calm and peaceful ing when the roud will reach Statesas a swan upon a lake of unruffled water .-Our stopping place was at the "Jones House." a more pleasant and attentive landlord in the no doubt, the cars would reach the Col-State. Nothing was wanting to make a stranger comfortable and at home As fitting for the occasion, our party seated themselves to as sumptuous and well displayed a table as we have ever seen.

During our stay, we visited the Davenport situation and from the observatory of which, we beheld the king of day slowly veiling himseemed hushed as we gazed in wonder and admiration on the grand scene before us, while our heart swelled with thanks and praises to the giver and author of such a picture. The gentle breezes played in sportive lection of blushing peaches, an envel-glee around the spot, and we were happy. On Friday, we made a trip to the summit of Hi'Briten; the road that leads to the top devined the intention of our fair Coz, is fine, and it was made at the expense of that liberal hearted gentleman, Col. William Lenoir. We reached its crest about ten o'- clock, and beheld in amazement, "Field, stream and valley spread, Far as the eye could gaze, With Summer's beauty o'er them shed, And sunlight's brightest rays. Plowers of the fairest dyes, Trees clothed in richest green And brightly smiled the deep blue skies, O'er this enchanting scene."

It was our first view of sublime mountain scenery, and will remain pictured in our imagination until we shall have passed to the "Happy bunting ground," if such shall be our lot. The name, Hi'Briten, was given by a lady from Virginia, who once visited the fairy spot. After feasting to our soul's content, we retraced our steps, to partake of the can now compete with any Printing vices that the Liberal Government is good things that were prepared for the inner Office in the State in executing printman, by our worthy host.

Our next visit was to "Happy Valley," the garden spot of Western Carolina. Here and there are scattered the pleasant and peaceful homes of the tillers of the soil. Among them hand; flat cap, Letter and Note Pamost conspicuous, were the mansions of Col. per; Red, Blue, Green, and other col-Jones and Gen. Patterson, admirably situated and command a full scope of the Valley as far as the eye can reach. We grasped his hand in the bond of brotherhood. and bound ourself to support the Constitution, the Union and Enforcement of the Laws.

On Wednesday morning early, we tound ourself pleasantly seated in one of D. C. Dunn's four-horse coaches, beside a fair comcompanion, who graced the entire jaunt with her presence, chatting merrily away the tedium of a morning drive. In-due time, we landed at the station, in the best of spirits and ready to take passage on the rapid homewand bound train; in a short time we were aboard and nearing home, where we arrived in health and benefitted by our trip to the goodly town of Lenoir and Happy Valley.

May peace and happiness abide with the couple, who were the cause of this recreation, through life, and the members of our party often look back and dwell in pleasure on the "Days of Auld Long Syne."

No Chance for Breekinridge or Douglas. It must appear perfectly manifest to every candid mind, who has paid attention to the signs of the times and the recent elections that have been held in Kentucky, Missouri, Alabama, &c., that neither Breckinridge or Douglas stands the smallest chance of an election before the people, nor will they receive votes sufficient to place either in the House.

The contest, therefore, is between Bell and Lincoln, and every southern vate which may be cast for the Squatter Sovereignty candidates, Breckinridge and Douglas, will aid Lincoln to triumph over Mr. Beil and the rights of the South.

The Charlotte Balletin, whose editor had fought Doug'as to the bitter oul, sage in the commodious and palace-like until recently; has signified its willingness to support Douglas, if a certain contingency should happen to the prospects for Mr. Breekinridge. PROF. L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR. An Effective, Safe and Economical Compound,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color without dyeing, and preventing the Hair from turning

FOR REMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and FOR BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, importing to it an unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation at present in use. It cleaness the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutameous discoves, causes the hair to grow luxuriantly, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy and flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosened and thinning, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the nobove facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore it to its original har, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a liair frestoried, having an argreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in the restory of the preparation of the first and in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a stondard toilet article which mono onght to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being Thorough Cultivation Most Profitable. . The following practical illustration of the value of the thorough tillage of a small farm, in opposition to the common practice of cultivating superficially a large tract of land, is taken from the Home Stead, and it is worthy of attentive consideration. It is an admirable instance of judicious calculation and management: ty acres ten years age. He immediately sold thirty acres of the less valua- A Splendid Assortment of ble portion, and with a part of the receipts from this sale, he underdrained and subsoiled twelve acres of that which he retained. The soil is a gravelly loam, and dry; but he drained it, he says, to make it wet, and succeeded. The whole of the manure from the barn-yard went to enrich these twelve acres, and now the land is really good. The second year after he came into possession, his crops from these twelve acres were more than double the produce taken by his predecessor from an average of at least thirty acres annually devoted by him to cultivation, while the quality of his products was twenty five per cent. better than they had ever been. Off one acre and a third he took four tons of clover hay. Though the land was previously in good heart, having a chance of obtaining six cords of manure from a blacksmith shop. he top-dressed the clover with that and a better condition as many cattle as his predecessor, and intends to break up three acres more next spring, under draining and subsoiling at the same time." # Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

A compound remedy, in which we have la-bored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:-

SCROFULA and SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS and ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PINPLES, BLOTCHES, TUNORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFEC TIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURAL-GIA OF TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEP-SIA and INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OF ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitia-ted blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, erup-tions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular dis-order is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleaning the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else. During late years the public have been mised by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frands upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties what-ever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsapa-rilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the dis-eases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

and Distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic Diseases.

The HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the awfuldestruction of human life caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practiced upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a charitable act worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give Medical Advice Gratis to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, dage, occupation, habits of life, &c.) and in case of extreme poverty, to Furnish Medicines Free of Charge.—
It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors of the Association, in their Annual Report upon the treatment of Sexual Diseases, express the highest satisfaction with the success which has attended the labors of their Surgeons in the cure of Spermatorrhea, Saminal Weakness, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Syphilis, the vice of Onauism or Self-Abuse, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder. &c., and order a continuance of the same plan for the ensuing year.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assared that their labors in this sphere of benevoent effort have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important and much deepised cause.

An admirable Report on Spermatorrhoea, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism. Masturbation, or Self-Abuse, and other diseases of the Sexual organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, will be be sent by mail (in a scaled envelope). Free of Charge, on leesipt of Two Stamps for postage. Other Reports and Tracts on the nature and treatment discovered during the last year, are of great value.
